

Update – Month of April-2022

#Update India

GOAHED MISSION food relief is continuously feeding more than 100 homeless kids in the street of India with fresh fruits and baked items. Here in India we are not in lockdown but the pandemic and recent political instability has affected people livelihood people are struggling to make daily ends meet. They depend on the food we provide.

The people in need shows their appreciations and gratitude for the love and support they are receiving. Thank you so much everyone for your continuous love and support.
